

It is important to stay safe while trying to solve computer problems

Basic Safety Rules Include :

- Switch off power points at the wall before connecting or disconnecting.
- Do not open the case of your computer or any other device.
- Never use force when connecting or disconnecting a cable or component (For example a printer).
- Do not lift heavy equipment on your own.
- If in doubt, STOP and ask for help.