

Solving network problems safely

By maya atawi

Switch off power points at the wall before connecting or disconnecting a mains electricity cable.

Do not open the case of your computer or any other device.

Never use force when connecting or disconnecting a cable or a component.

could lead to an electrical shock.

Make sure all cables are disconnected before attempting to move a device.

Do not lift heavy equipment on your own