

TDS IN JORDAN

By Natalie sahour, tia alayoub, Mahmoud abdulraheem, alba luna, sanad zreiquat

Introduction:

every country has TDS this power point talks about Jordanian TDS.

What is the TD?

Offering food is a must accepting is rude, a complicated rule

How do we describe it?

In Jordan, people offer to come to dinner when it wasn't planned but until is rude to accept declining makes you look more polite. This is a very practiced rule in Jordan.

Where and when is the TD done?

At home restaurants and place where you may be invited to an unplanned event ,it is done any time.

Who practice it?

Jordanians, but not all Jordanians do this TD.

Why is this TD practiced?

It is practiced to be polite.

Next TD

What is the TD?

Eating mansaf with hands. May seem to discussing but the biggest TD in Jordan.

How do we describe it?

In Jordan, people offer to come to dinner when it wasn't planned, but it is rude except declining makes you look polite .

Where and when is it done?

At homes, restaurants, and any place where you can be invited unexpectedly

Who practice it?

Local families in Jordan or any person too kind to invite family or friends to their house .

Why is it practiced?

It is a symbol of generosity and hospitality.

THE END

Thank you to culture tip and kaleea.com