

Word builder

1.
 - a. Cruel is more emotional and clearly states the level of suffering. Bad is too generic and imprecise to be effective.
 - b. It suggests a closer relationship. Tourists are accepted as part of the herd, as invited members.
 - c. It suggests more freedom, better conditions, a bigger space to roam.
2. Some examples might be: the lonely horse, the frightened monkey, etc.
3. Some examples are: a friendly duck, an inquisitive goat, etc.