

Understanding

Give students time to read the text on their own, then read with the class.

1. nervous
2. amusing
3. People used a different 'sort' of English. They were superstitious/believed in fairies and hobgoblins.

Take this exercise further with these additional questions:

4. Explain what helped the writer to remember her lines.
5. How many things in the passage worried the writer about performing?