Past Simple

FORM

I / He / She / We returned / left.
 Did he return / leave?/Yes, he did./No, he didn't.
 He did not (didn't) return / leave.

Use

The past simple is used:

- ◆ for an action which happened at a definite time in the past. The time is stated, already known or implied.

They spent their holidays in Switzerland last winter.

(When did they go to Switzerland?

Last winter. The time is stated.)

They had a great time.

(The time is already known.)

- ◆ for actions which happened immediately one after the other in the past.

First, he read the message. Then, he called his boss.

Past Continuous

FORM

I / He / She was / We / They were watching.
 Was he / Were they watching? Yes, he was./No, they weren't.
 He was not (wasn't) / They were not (weren't) watching.

The past continuous is used:

- ◆ for an action which was in progress at a stated time in the past. We do not mention when the action started or finished.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon, they were sitting at an outdoor café. (We do not know when they got to or when they left the café.)

- ◆ for an action which was in progress when another action interrupted it. We use the past continuous for the action in progress (longer action) and the past simple for the action which interrupted it (shorter action).

He was walking when he slipped on a banana skin.

- ◆ for two or more simultaneous past actions.

She was talking on the phone while he was drawing a picture.

to talk about the lives of people who are no longer alive.

Marilyn Monroe starred in a number of successful films.

The past simple is used with the following time expressions: yesterday, last night/week/month/year/Monday, etc., two days/weeks/months/ago, then, when, How long ago...?, in 1992/1845, etc.

to describe the atmosphere, the setting, etc. in the introduction to a story before we describe the main events.

Todd and Alex were walking through the forest. The sun was shining and the birds were singing.

The past continuous is used with the following time expressions: when, while, as, all day/night/morning, etc.

Past Perfect

FORM

She had arrived/gone.

Had she arrived/gone? Yes, she had./No, she hadn't.

She had not (hadn't) arrived/gone.

Use

The past perfect is used:

- for an action which happened before another past action or before a stated time in the past.

She had already decided what to cook when she went home. (She decided first and then she went home.)

She had already eaten dinner by 8 pm.

- for an action which finished in the past and whose result was visible in the past.

Bill had injured his legs in a car accident, so he had to use a wheelchair for six months.

(The action finished in the past and its result was visible in the past, too.)

Note:

The past perfect is the past equivalent of the present perfect.

- He had broken his leg, so he couldn't walk.
(The action 'had broken' happened in the past, and the result 'couldn't walk' was visible in the past, too.)
- He has broken his leg, so he can't walk.
(The action 'has broken' happened in the past, and the result 'can't walk' is still visible in the present.)

The past perfect is used with the following time expressions: before, after, already, for, since, just, till/until, when, by, by the time, never, etc.
