

Writing #2: Semi--guided (Model Answer)

The Golden Goose

Paragraph #1:

Introduce the characters & setting

Once there lived a widow with her three sons in a far away village. The eldest son was clever, the second eldest was strong, and the youngest was Peter. Peter was the kindest son with the biggest heart, but his brothers always made fun of him.

Paragraph #2:

Events leading to the problem

One day, the eldest son went into the forest to cut wood for the fire. His mother packed him a large and delicious lunch. As he entered the forest, a poor old man appeared. "Can you spare me a bite to eat son? I'm terribly hungry!" begged the old man.

"No, if I give you any, there won't be as much left for me." replied the clever son.

Then he went on to cut the wood however, the axe broke and he hurt his leg. So then, the strong brother went out to the forest to cut wood where he also ran into the hungry old man. But he too refused to share his lunch. Then once he began cutting the tree, the axe bounced back and hurt his head.

After that, Peter was sent to the forest to cut wood. Once again, the old man appeared, except this time Peter agreed to share his lunch with him. Therefore, the old man repaid Peter by giving him a Golden Goose.

Paragraph #3:

Solution/Happy ending

Peter was astonished by the Golden Goose. Anyone that tried to take a feather from his Golden Goose got stuck to it. So, Peter ended up walking around with a bunch of people flying behind him like a kite without him knowing, which made the sad Princess amused and laughing again. Peter and the Princess got married and lived happily ever after.
