

Writing #1: Guided

(Refer to Page 9)

Max the Dog

Katie was a 7-year-old girl who had a dog named Max. She loved Max so much. He was a little spotted dog who loved to play fetch.

On Wednesday, Katie took Max out for a walk in the park. She threw a stick for him to fetch. They were enjoying their time for a while until a squirrel passed by.

Continue your realistic fiction story here. Read the questions below to help you and use words from the vocabulary bank.

worried – posters – idea – treats – favorite – happy – sad – missing – lost

Max got very furious and started running after the squirrel.

_____

"Max, come back!" Katie called out. But, Max ran as fast as a cheetah, so she wasn't able to catch up with him.

_____

Hours passed, and Max didn't come back. So, she had an idea. She ran home and grabbed some crayons, and a big piece of paper, to draw a poster that says "Lost Dog: Max." She included her phone number, hoping someone would call if they found him.

_____

_____

_____

What problem could Katie face here?

How did the Katie react or feel at this point?

Use powerful adjectives.

Use one simile or onomatopoeia

What ideas did she come up with to find her missing dog?

She rushed back to the park and started asking people if they had seen Max. A kid told her, "I saw your dog playing with a squirrel today." Katie was happy to hear that.

Who helped Katie look for her dog? Use a dialogue with speech marks and saying verbs.

Hours passed, and Katie felt really sad and worried about Max. She sat on the bench, hoping to see Max. Just then, she heard a familiar bark "Woooof". It was Max! He came running back to her wagging his tail happily. Katie was overjoyed to see Max again, so she gave him a big hug and a handful of treats.

What happened in the end? How was the problem solved?