

Name: _____

Date: _____

Homophones- To, Two, and Too

- Homophones are words that have the same sound as another word but have different spellings and meanings.
 - ✓ To- A preposition before a noun or infinitive before a verb.
(Let's go to the store).
 - ✓ Two- The number 2 (I would like two tacos please.)
 - ✓ Too- A synonym for also or when having excess amounts.
(There are too many people here.)

Choose the correct homophone in parentheses to correctly complete each sentence.

1. I would like to go to _____ Disneyland for my birthday.
(too, to)
2. David has two _____ dogs and a cat.
(two, to)
3. They would like to go to the opera too _____!
(too, two)
4. Be ready to _____ wake up early tomorrow morning.
(too, to)
5. Who would like to go to _____ the grocery store with me?
(two, to)
6. I hear too _____ much chatting in our classroom this morning.
(too, to)
7. Karla placed her two _____ mittens on the coffee table.
(too, two)
8. Don't forget to _____ put your homework in you backpack!
(to, two)
9. There were two _____ jackets left in the classroom yesterday.
(too, two)
10. Leon enjoys playing soccer too _____!
(too, to)