

Practice Paper Unit (2)

Grade (9)

Name _____

Date: / 10 /2023

Objectives:-To identify the meanings of the new words.

To practise using the new words in sentences .

Favor	The support of something or someone. I voted in favor of classical music .
Reputation	The opinion that people have about someone or something. My school has a good reputation in teaching languages.
Risk	The possibility of something bad happening, venture. Don't take the risk and spend your money on this project .
Range	A set of similar things. I have a wide range of pop music CDs.
Quartet	A band of four musicians or singers. Mr. Brown formed a quartet band.
Piece	What has been created by an artist, musician or writer. My music teacher composed a fantastic piece of music about freedom.
Chamber	A room used for a special purpose. My father joined Amman Chamber of Commerce.
Merit	The quality of being good. Jack is a composer of outstanding merit .
Emphasis	The importance that is given to something. They placed great emphasis on the individual freedom.
Superiority	The fact that a person or thing is better than others. The superiority of his work is noticeable.
Dependability	Reliability, confidence, or trustworthiness. The brand has built its reputation on rock-solid dependability.
Standards	Levels of quality. You should follow certain standards to evaluate the exams.

Adjectives

Appropriate	Suitable or right. Express yourself clearly by using an appropriate language .
Superior	Better than people or things of the same type.. You should be a modest person , don't think that you are a superior one .
Talented	Gifted, having a natural ability to be good at something without being taught. John is a talented young boy , he can play chess perfectly .
Live	Broadcast, recorded, or seen performance while it's happening. The concert is going to be transmitted live.
Desirable	Wanted by most people. It is so desirable for most people to practice sport.
Unreliable	Not able to be trusted or believed. He is an unreliable person , he always tells lies .

Verbs

Appeal to	To attract someone. The range of topics will appeal to youngsters.
Appreciate	To recognize how good something or someone is. One day you will appreciate my effort.
Conduct	To organize or perform a particular activity. Mary will conduct the school orchestra.
Catch on	1. To become fashionable or popular. The idea of linking pay to performance has caught on. 2. To understand especially after a long time. I caught on to what you are saying.
Drop out	To stop doing something before being finished. You must drop out your bad habits.
Suffer	To experience physical or mental pain. Because of the drought, people in Africa suffered from starvation.

Adverbs

Absolutely	Completely. You are absolutely right about Joe bad behavior .
Frankly	In an honest way. Frankly , you need to behave yourself .
Outstandingly	In an extraordinary way. It was outstandingly good meal.
Exceptionally	Much greater than usual. The weather was exceptionally hot last year.
Justifiably	Having a good reason. Local people are justifiably concerned about developing their city .
Basically	Essentially. We started from a basically simple idea.
Notoriously	In a famous way but for something bad. The company is notoriously difficult to contact.

Q1:-Use these words in sentences of your own .

- 1- Merit _____.
- 2- Favour_____.
- 3- Unreliable_____.
- 4- Catch on_____.
- 5- Drop out_____.
- 6- Appeal to_____.

Q2 :-Fill in the gap with the suitable words from the box .

talented , range , live , standards , suffer , basically , genre ,frankly , appreciate ,conduct ,appropriate .

1-You can't judge their works by the same-----.

2-If I want to go to a traditional wedding ,I should wear-----clothes.

3-Vistors can-----the beauty of the Opera house.

4-Above sea level ,there is a wide -----of temperature .

5-If you-----from a painful foot condition.It's worth a look .

6-Ernest Hemingway was the most -----novelist in sea narrative fiction .

7-This is what comes of knowing how to-----oneself .

8-She can read soul, so she knows-----everything about people in two seconds .

9-Quite----- ,he was never sure if he could trust her .

10-Before you begin writing your novel , you must decide on the form and the-----.

Taroub Massarweh

Coordinator Signature_____

Qamar Swan